ERRATUM

1. The Puerto Rico Department of Education (PRDE) published on April 21, 2016 a notice titled "Availability of Funds for Competitive Proposal under Title I, Part A, for Equitable Services for Eligible Private School Students for the 2016-2017 Academic Year.

This erratum serves to notify that the Request for Proposal needs to be corrected as follows:

Esta convocatoria es exclusivamente para propuestas nuevas, las cuales se podrán someter para continuación por un periodo máximo de tres años; la continuación de estos proyectos desde su segundo año hasta su tercer año dependerá de la ejecución del proponente y de la disponibilidad de fondos del programa. La aprobación de propuestas subvencionadas por el programa incluido en esta convocatoria estará sujeta a la disponibilidad de fondos.

2. The PRDE issued on May 2, 2016 a Request for Proposal for School Year 2016-2017 to carry out its equitable services program under Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA), as amended. The objective of the Title I, Part A equitable services program is to assist eligible private school children in acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary to meet challenging academic content and student academic achievement standards.

This erratum serves to notify that the Request for Proposal needs to be corrected as follows:

All references related to the assessment with standardized testing by the contractor or administration of pre and post-standardized tests to the Title I participating students by the contractor are hereby eliminated. Said tests will be provided, administered, and corrected by a third party with whom the PRDE will sign a separate formal agreement.
