I. ¿Qué es el Examen de Equivalencia de Escuela Superior (EEES)?

A. Descripción del examen

El Examen de Equivalencia de Escuela Superior es una batería de cinco (5) exámenes que responden al programa del Departamento de Educación de Puerto Rico en las áreas de Comunicación en Español, Comunicación en Inglés, Interacción Social, Razonamiento Científico y Razonamiento Matemático. Este examen evalúa la habilidad cognoscitiva, el aprovechamiento académico y sus destrezas de redacción. El examen está disponible para aquellos adultos como usted que no completaron sus estudios, ofreciéndoles así la oportunidad de obtener el diploma de escuela superior. Este certificado de equivalencia es válido para los patronos de agencias públicas o privadas así como para instituciones que ofrecen estudios universitarios o posgrados.

B. ¿Qué se examina en el EEES?

El EEES tiene como finalidad examinar las habilidades y el aprendizaje desarrollados por el participante a lo largo de su educación básica. Como sabemos, el desarrollo de estas destrezas corresponde al cúmulo de conocimientos adquiridos a través de los años de enseñanza formal y aprendizaje del participante. Esto requiere que dediquen tiempo de repaso y práctica constante como preámbulo al examen, ya que sólo así se recordarán y activarán los contenidos y habilidades adquiridas en su formación. El examen abarca las cinco (5) asignaturas básicas del Programa de Educación para Adultos.

1. Áreas académicas que se evalúan

C. Tiempo de duración del examen

El tiempo de duración de cada uno de los cinco (5) exámenes varía según la materia.

D. Formato de los ejercicios

Los ejercicios del EEES están redactados por áreas temáticas y siguen un formato de pregunta, seguida de alternativas o posibles respuestas. En la prueba se presentan diversos tipos de ejercicios de selección múltiple. Cada ejercicio de selección múltiple ofrece cinco (5) alternativas: A), B), C), D) y E). Entre estas, solamente existe una respuesta CORRECTA que puede estar en cualquier posición entre las alternativas para cada pregunta. A todos los ejercicios se les asigna el mismo valor, aun a los más difíciles.

E. Resultados del EEES

Aunque cada examen se califica de manera independiente, para obtener el diploma de equivalencia de escuela superior tiene que aprobar los cinco exámenes.

F. Prepararse para tomar los exámenes del EEES

Para poder estudiar de manera apropiada y lograr los mejores resultados en este examen, siga estas recomendaciones y consejos prácticos:

- Elija un buen horario para usted.
- Elija un lugar silencioso e iluminado.
- Estudie por lo menos 2 horas diarias.
- Lea y practique.
- Tome descansos breves.
- No estudie la noche antes.
- Descanse y duerma bien.
- Desayune bien.

- Salga a tiempo, trate de llegar 20 minutos antes del examen.
- Si el horario del examen lo amerita, lleve meriendas o almuerzos.
- Estudie la materia más de una vez.
- Tome mucha agua mientras estudia.
- Mantenga el teléfono o cualquier dispositivo electrónico apagado mientras estudia.
- No dude de su capacidad ni de sus conocimientos el día del examen.

II. Guía de estudio

A. Propósito de la Guía de Estudio

La EEES cubre cinco áreas académicas, conocidas como áreas medulares de la enseñanza. Esta guía presenta información didáctica, y explicaciones de cada área con el propósito de brindar al participante una idea clara de cómo se organiza y estructura el contenido de la prueba del EEES. Así, la guía contiene información relacionada con el contenido del examen, ejercicios de práctica, exámenes simulados y referencias para facilitar el estudio de cada concepto a evaluarse en la asignatura, de forma que le facilite el prepararse para tomar el Examen y aprobarlo con éxito.

B. ¿Cómo utilizar la Guía de Estudio?

La Guía de Estudio que aquí se presenta le servirá como una herramienta didáctica que facilitará su aprendizaje. La puede utilizar de manera autodidacta o con la ayuda de sus maestros, de manera que pueda reforzar y aumentar su comprensión sobre cierta información académica en las materias básicas. Por ello, ponemos a su alcance material de estudio con el propósito de que pueda presentar su Examen de Equivalencia de Escuela Superior en la forma adecuada y con mayores probabilidades de éxito. Comience leyendo cuidadosamente la tabla de contenido de forma que conozca las secciones que contiene la guía. Una vez termine con la tabla de contenido, así como la información de las secciones I y II, pase a leer detenidamente toda la información contenida en la guía. Es decir:

1. Estudie primero la descripción del examen según la materia específica. Prosiga con la Tabla de conceptos que resume todos los conceptos que se trabajarán en el examen, una descripción general de cada concepto, así como el contenido específico de las destrezas que debe dominar.
2. Luego utilice los instrumentos y ejercicios de práctica para diagnosticar cuánto más debe estudiar para dominar a cabalidad cada concepto del EEES.

- ✓ Analice la forma en la que están estructurados los ejemplos, y la forma de responder los ejercicios.
- ✓ Realice las actividades que se sugieren, esto permitirá mejorar el proceso de análisis, así como las habilidades matemáticas y lectoras.
- ✓ Conteste los ejercicios de práctica que se incluyen en la guía, hasta que se sienta preparado.
- ✓ Consulte diversas fuentes bibliográficas cuando tenga duda en algún tema.

3. Proceda a contestar el examen de simulación.

Es importante que lea atenta y detenidamente las recomendaciones para resolver los ejercicios del examen de simulación que aquí se le indican.

- ✓ No consulte el anejo de respuestas hasta que se haya contestado el instrumento de práctica.
- ✓ Compare las respuestas con las claves que se incluyen en el anejo.
- ✓ En caso de que alguna respuesta esté incorrecta, regrese al ejercicio y busque otra vía de solución.

Es importante utilizar las referencias provistas para cada concepto y estudiar el contenido específico de cada material. Puede conseguir ayuda adicional para estudiar el contenido de cada prueba del EEES a través del Programa de Educación para Adultos de cada Región Educativa o en las Oficinas Centrales del Departamento de Educación.

C. Descripción del examen de simulación:

Comunicación en Inglés

El examen de simulación de Comunicación en Inglés se presenta en tres (3) secciones, con sus correspondientes conceptos, según aparecen en la Tabla, a saber:

- 1ra. - Language and Grammar
- 2da. - Reading Comprehension
- 3ra. - Indirect Writing

El propósito de este examen de simulación de Comunicación en Inglés es medir la comprensión lectora básica en inglés. Además mide el dominio que el participante tiene de los elementos básicos del idioma, es decir, si es capaz de utilizarlo adecuadamente.

El examen de simulación incluye 50 preguntas de selección múltiple relacionadas a conceptos como los siguientes: partes de la oración, vocabulario en contexto, oraciones incompletas, relaciones de sentido, sinónimos, textos literarios e informativos, el texto como unidad de sentido, conectores lógicos y redacción indirecta.

Después de la tabla de conceptos que sigue a continuación, se ofrece el examen de simulación que le brindará al participante una experiencia similar al examen de equivalencia de Comunicación en Inglés.

D. TABLA DE CONCEPTOS – COMUNICACIÓN EN INGLÉS

SECTION 1: LANGUAGE USE AND GRAMMAR

Concepts	General Description	Skills/Competencies
1. Language use/usage	Language use refers to knowledge of grammatical form correctness for communication purposes. Language usage refers to the rules for making language, i.e. the structures used. It can be compared to use, which considers the communicative meaning of language. For language usage, punctuation rules are very important. Punctuation is the use of spacing, conventional signs and certain typographical devices as aids to the understanding and correct reading, both silently and aloud, of handwritten and printed texts. They are the marks such as periods and commas in writing that make the meaning clear. There are 14 punctuation marks in the English language: the period, question mark, exclamation point, comma, semicolon, colon, dash, hyphen, parentheses, brackets, braces, apostrophe, quotation marks, and ellipses.	Recognize vocabulary in context. Apply the correct use of prepositions and pronouns. Recognize correct punctuation and end marks in sentences and questions.

Concepts	General Description	Skills/Competencies
2. Parts of Speech	English words have been traditionally classified into eight lexical categories, or parts of speech (and are still done so in most dictionaries): nouns, pronouns, adjectives, verbs, adverbs, prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections for communication purposes, according to their functions. 1. Noun - any abstract or concrete entity; a person (police officer, Michael), place (coastline, London), thing (necktie, television), idea (happiness), or quality (bravery). 2. Pronoun - a word that substitutes for a noun or noun phrase (them). They are used in place of a noun that has already been mentioned or that is already known, often to avoid repeating the noun. For example: Karen was tired so she went to bed. Carlos took the children with him. Julia's face was close to mine. 3. Verb – word that describes any action (walk), occurrence (happen), or state of being (be) in the sentence. Verbs show the action and verb tenses indicate the time of the action or state that being expressed by the verb. In English, there are three basic tenses:	List the parts of speech. Identify nouns as part of the sentence structure. Apply the correct use of pronouns. Determine subject and verb agreement in sentences and questions. Apply verb tenses correctly. Identify adverbs in a sentence. Recognize adjectives in a sentence. Recognize prepositions of time, location, and place correctly. Select conjunctions correctly in sentences (continue in next page)

Concepts	General Description	Skills/Competencies
2. Parts of Speech (continous from previous page)	present, past, and future. Present tense - the verb indicates a habit or general truth. - I study English every day. Past tense - the verb indicates a terminated action. - Two years ago, I studied English in New York. Future tense – the verb indicates a future action. - I will study English next year 4. Adverb - any word that describes characteristics (qualifier) of an verb, clause, sentence, or other adverb (i. e. very). 5. Adjective - a word that describes a noun. 6. Prepositions – describe a relationship between words in a sentence, they indicate a relationship between two things. There are about 150 prepositions in English. Prepositions are important words. We use individual prepositions more frequently than other individual words. In fact, the prepositions of, to and in are among the ten most frequent words in English.	Identify interjections in sentences. (continue in next page)

Concepts	General Description	Skills/Competencies
2. Parts of Speech (continous from previous page)	English Preposition Rule: A preposition is followed by a "noun". It is never followed by a verb. Prepositions of Place: at, in, on Most frequently used for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • at for a POINT • in for an ENCLOSED SPACE • on for a SURFACE Prepositions of Time: at, in, on. In general, we use: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • at for a PRECISE TIME • in for MONTHS, YEARS, CENTURIES and LONG PERIODS • on for DAYS and DATES 7. Conjunction - Any syntactic connector (and) join words or groups of words: or, not, but, for, although, etc. 8. Interjection - a word added to a sentence to convey an emotion or a feelings such as surprise, disgust, joy, excitement, or enthusiasm.

Concepts	General Description	Skills/Competencies
3. Comprehension and interpretation of literary and informational texts.	Reading comprehension refers to: literal comprehension and understanding of what is explicitly stated in the text, or inferential comprehension refers to the understanding of what is implied by the text. Texts are written for three different purposes: to entertain, as with novels and fictional stories; to persuade, as with articles trying to convince you of a certain point; and to inform, as with encyclopedias, history books, textbooks, and anything made to help you learn different things. Reading for comprehension requires that you be able to understand concepts as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Main Ideas - The most important or central idea of a passage. Example: "The yo-yo has appealed to many different cultures during different periods." 2. Details - Support or explain the main idea. Example: "The yo-yo was invented one thousand years ago in China. It became popular in England, France, and the United States." 	Identify vocabulary meaning according to the context. Identify the story elements in a selection. Identify main ideas in a selection. Determine supporting ideas in the selection. Identify supporting sentences in a text. Order sequence of events in a series of disarrayed sentences. Recognize the sequence of events. Identify the personality of the characters. Infer the climax of a selection.

Concepts	General Description	Skills/Competencies
	3. Sequence of Events - Shows events in the order in which they happened chronologically. 4. Characterization - The process by which the writer reveals the personality of the character. Example: “The impatient boy and quiet girl were both well-mannered and did not disobey their mother.” 5. Climax - The highest point of action in a story.
4. Vocabulary in Context	Vocabulary in context refers to the part of a text or statement that surrounds a particular word or passage and determines its meaning. You can find the clues to the meaning of unfamiliar words by examining the context, the words surrounding the unfamiliar word. Example: The speaker was eloquent, persuading us with her moving stories. When you are able to determine the meaning of an unknown word by reading the words or sentences around it, you are using vocabulary in context. Developing vocabulary in context skills is important because it	Determine the meaning of unknown words by using context clues. Recognize correct word order in sentences and questions. (continue in next page)

4. Vocabulary in Context (continous from previous page)	allows you to continue reading without stopping to use a dictionary. Context clues are words and phrases in a sentence which help you reason out the meaning of an unfamiliar word. Often you can figure out the meanings of new or unfamiliar vocabulary by paying attention to the surrounding language. You will study four types of context clues that help in defining unknown word. Example: Synonyms, Antonyms, and General Senses. For example, you might not understand the word acerbity, by itself: “The acerbity of the lemon caused the little girl to spit out the bite she had just taken.”; this sentence helps you understand that the general meaning of acerbity must be “bitter or sour”. The context clues "lemon" and "spitting out the bite", which provide more information in the sentence, help you understand what the vocabulary word means.

SECTION 3: INDIRECT WRITING

Concepts	General Description	Skills/Competencies
5. Indirect Writing	Recognize writing strategies to improve, revise, or edit the text.	Identification of correct sentence structures, spelling, and grammatical fluency in passages.
6. Sentence structure	Sentence structure tells us how many independent and dependent clauses are in a sentence. Topic sentence is the main idea developed about a topic. There are four sentence structures. 1. Simple sentences: contain only one independent clause and no subordinate clauses. Example: - I drink coffee. 2. Compound sentences: contain two or more independent clauses and no subordinate clauses. Example: - She cooked and he cleaned.	Determine the topic and concluding sentences of a passage. Identify correct sentence structure in a text. (continue in next page)

6. Sentence structure (continous from previous page)	3. Complex sentences: contain one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause. Example: - Since I love reading, I have a library card. 4. Compound - complex sentences: contain at least two independent clauses and at least one subordinate clause. Example: - I would have purchased the cheese that you like, but it was too expensive.

E. Examen de Simulación

El examen de simulación integra dos tipos de ejercicios: de práctica y de simulación.

1. Ejercicios de práctica y respuestas

Los ejercicios de práctica responden a cada uno de los conceptos que aparecen en la Tabla correspondiente y se trabajan en el mismo orden. Cada ejercicio de práctica le ofrece información de contenido sobre el tema además de mostrarle un modelo de las instrucciones y ejercicios que aparecerán en el examen del EEES. Así mismo se presenta una explicación de cómo se llevó a cabo el razonamiento que permitió seleccionar la respuesta elegida.

2. Ejercicios de simulación y respuestas

Los ejercicios de simulación son ejercicios similares a los de práctica y corresponden, también, a los conceptos y las destrezas específicas que se evaluarán en el EEES.

Todas las respuestas a los ejercicios de simulación de las distintas materias se encuentran en la sección F que está al final de esta guía, de forma que pueda evaluar su desempeño y prepararse con anticipación para el día del examen de equivalencia.

Instrucciones Generales

Antes de comenzar a contestar los ejercicios de este examen, siga las instrucciones que se le indican para que pueda utilizar de forma correcta la hoja de contestaciones y se asegure de que su respuesta sea válida. Lea cuidadosamente las recomendaciones que se presentan a continuación.

Instrucciones para responder en la hoja de contestaciones:

1. Utilice únicamente un lápiz número 2 para rellenar los espacios.
2. No utilice un lápiz mecánico, bolígrafo, ni tinta.
3. Rellene el espacio completamente con su respuesta.
4. No responda con marcas de cotejo, equis (x) u otras líneas.
5. Evite presionar muy fuerte el lápiz, en caso que desee borrar para cambiar una respuesta borre completamente la marca anterior.
6. No deje respuestas en blanco.
7. No apoye la punta del lápiz en la hoja de contestaciones mientras piensa su respuesta, ni haga marcas innecesarias en la hoja.

Section 1: Language Use and Grammar

Concepts:

Punctuation and parts of speech vocabulary in context*

Language use refers to knowledge of grammatical form correctness for communication purposes. It includes appropriate use of punctuation rules and parts of speech as described in the table of concepts.

The practice exercises for this section will allow you to work on your communicative and linguistic competence in English. This implies knowledge of the skills and concepts to recognize vocabulary in context, and use correct verb tense structure according to the logical function in the sentences. The practice section will present you with a model of instructions and exercises similar to what you find in the EEES test. For the practice exercises, the correct answer and explanations of the reasoning behind the correct answers are provided.

Exercises will allow you to complete sentences using vocabulary in context as a key, identify and apply punctuation rules and parts of speech. For example: An adjective is a word that describes a noun. Superlative adjectives express the greatest increase or decrease of the quality. For instance, 'He is the richest man in this town'. Here, the word "richest" is the superlative adjective which shows a comparison individually.

Examples:

Mary is the tallest of all the students.

I am in the smallest class in the school.

Instructions: You will find incomplete statements. Each statement has one (1) or two (2) blanks. Each blank indicates that a word was omitted. After reading carefully, select the option that best logically completes or is the function of the missing word in the statement. There are five (5) options to choose from with letters a, b, c, d, and e after each statement.

Sample exercises:

1. Eating breakfast is ____ than eating dinner.
- a. important
 - b. as important
 - c. more important
 - d. the most important
 - e. the least important

Explanation: This statement is a comparison which needs an adjective to express this idea. To compare two things we need to use the adjective + than. When an adjective has two or more syllables we add "more" to form the comparative. Option (a) is eliminated because it does not contain "more." Option (b) is eliminated because it is an equative adjective structure. Options (d), and (e) are eliminated because they are in the superlative form comparing three or more things.

Solution: The correct option is: more important.

Eating breakfast is more important than eating dinner.

Correct option: (c)

2. We practiced reading new vocabulary words while we _____.

- a. walk
- b. walking
- c. was walking
- d. were walking
- e. had walked

Explanation: This sentence is expressed in the past continuous tense. Two actions occurred. One interrupted the other. Option (a) is incorrect because it is in the simple present tense. Option (b) is incorrect because it is in the present continuous tense. Option (e) is incorrect because it expresses the past perfect tense which the events have ended. The two remaining options are (c) and (d). The subject is we. The auxiliary verb must agree with the subject we.

Solution: The correct option is: were walking.

We practiced reading new vocabulary words while we were walking.

Correct option: (d)

Section 2: Reading Comprehension

Concepts:

- Literal and inferential comprehension*
- Vocabulary in Context*
- Story Elements*

In this section, there are two types of analysis: literal comprehension and inferential comprehension. There are sample selections followed by items related to the content of the readings. These practice exercises will test understanding of what is explicitly stated in the text such as vocabulary in context, details, and sequence of events. In addition, there are exercises to test understanding of inferential comprehension of what is implied in the text which include: infer main ideas, examine story elements, and determine characterization.

Vocabulary in context refers to the part of a text or statement that surrounds a particular word or passage and determines its meaning.

Details support or explain the main idea, usually through supporting sentences.

Sequence of events means sorting events in the order in which they happened chronologically.

Main idea is the most important idea in the text.

Story elements refer to the most important things to look for in a story. There are 5 key elements in a story: character, setting, conflict, plot and theme.

Instructions: You will find a reading selection. Read it carefully. There are incomplete statements. Each statement has one (1) blank. Each blank indicates that an answer is required to complete the ideas. After reading carefully, select the option that best logically completes the statement. There are five options to choose from with letters a, b, c, d, and e after each statement.

A Life of Achievements

Oprah Winfrey

- 01 When I was in school, I wasn't a very good student because I didn't like to study. I liked to draw, and I made funny drawings of all my teachers. When I graduated from
- 05 high school, I didn't want to go to college, so I got a job in a store near my house. I was an assistant there, but I didn't like my job. One day I met my friend Brandon for lunch at Archie's, a nearby café. While we

- 10 were there, I sketched some caricatures of the people in the café. Brandon looked at my drawings and said, "Why don't you find a job at a newspaper?" You're a good artist!" Six months later, I got a job at a
- 15 local magazine and I left my job at the store. I worked hard, and soon I got a better job at a major newspaper. I draw cartoons and comic strips every day. I don't make a lot of money, but I enjoy my work! I'll never forget
- 20 Brandon and our lunch together at Archie's.

Sample exercises:

1. Oprah's first job was in a:

- a. store
- b. college
- c. newspaper
- d. café
- e. supermarket

Explanation: In the selection, Oprah's first job was mentioned. Option (b) is about her academic career so it is not a possible answer. Option (c) is Oprah's future opportunity. It is not correct. For options (d) and (e) there is no information in the selection. The correct option is Oprah's first job was in a store.

Solution: The correct option is: store

Oprah's first job was in a store.

Correct option: (a)

2. The main idea of this selection is:

- a. Oprah did not go to college.
- b. Oprah changed many difficult jobs.
- c. Oprah started her achievements.
- d. Oprah listened to her friend at lunch one day.
- e. Oprah drew funny cartoons of her teachers.

Explanation: The main idea is a summary in one sentence of the selection. Option (a) is mentioned in the selection, but it is not the result of Oprah's actions. Option (b) is true, but it is not the complete idea of Oprah's success. Options (d) and (e) are details. The correct option is (c) Oprah started her achievements when she went into a newspaper job.

Solution: The correct option is: Oprah started her achievements.

Oprah started her achievements.

Correct option: (c)

Instructions: Read carefully the following selection. Select the best option.

Here Comes Zumba®

At some time during the 1980's, the world started talking about aerobic exercise, or simply "aerobics." Although athletes had been playing tennis and soccer and running in marathons for decades, aerobics seemed like something new. For the first time, video cassette players were in millions of living rooms, and people started buying video tapes and learning aerobics from celebrities. New gyms and health clubs opened, and regular people who didn't think of themselves as athletes started "working out" to get healthier.

The focus of aerobic exercise is the heart and lungs. The idea is to move the body enough to make the heart pump faster. With the heart beating faster, the lungs start taking in more oxygen and the blood is aerated (or oxygenated). That's where the term aerobics comes from. It's a type of exercise that keeps the heart and lungs strong, and it burns calories, too.

In more recent years, aerobics have lost some of their glamour. Many people now accept regular exercise as a necessity, but spending hours alone at a health club on exercise machines just isn't much fun. That's where Zumba® comes in. At a Zumba® class, groups of people move and sweat to Latin American music. The focus is on fun, and exercisers say they get a good aerobic workout, but they feel like they're at a dance party.

Zumba® was begun by a fitness trainer from Colombia named Beto Pérez. According to the story, Perez arrived at his aerobics class one day without his usual music. He went to his car to get the dance music he enjoyed---Latin American Salsa, Merengue, Samba, and Cumbia. The class exercised to these energetic rhythms, and the idea for the Zumba® workout was born.

The workout is now spreading to countries all over the world. The Zumba® Company sells DVDs for people who want to exercise at home, and they also train instructors. The instructors teach classes in a variety of locations from health clubs to community centers. And best of all, people who were bored with aerobic exercise are having fun again.

Sample exercises:

1. What is the article mostly about?
 - a. how aerobic exercise is good for the body
 - b. getting aerobic exercise on machines
 - c. a new kind of aerobic exercise
 - d. running marathons and soccer
 - e. new gyms and health clubs

Ejercicios de Práctica y Respuesta de Comunicación en Inglés

2. In the first paragraph, why does the writer mention tennis and soccer?

- a. They are sports that are not popular now.
- b. They are ways for athletes to get aerobic exercise.
- c. They were new sports in the 1980's.
- d. They were the focus of gyms and health clubs.
- e. They were the glamour in most recent years.

3. According to the third paragraph, why has aerobic exercise become less attractive in recent years? It's ____.

- a. not fun
- b. expensive
- c. necessary
- d. a dance
- e. a necessity

4. How did Zumba® get started?

- a. A fitness instructor used a different kind of music in class.
- b. A regular exerciser got bored with exercise machines.
- c. A driver was listening to music in his car.
- d. The Latin Cumbia dance was invented.
- e. Exercisers felt like they were at a party.

5. What does the Zumba® Company do?

- a. It teaches exercise classes.
- b. It produces Latin American music CDs.
- c. It produces t-shirts and shorts.
- d. It sells DVDs and trains instructors.
- e. It rents health clubs in community centers.

Sample exercises correct answers

New Car Buyer Agreement for Trade-in of Used Car

The value of the trade-in car listed on the first page of this document is based on the National Auto Dealer's Used Car Guide or any guide approved by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. This value may be further adjusted for mileage, improvements, or any major mechanical defects.

I agree to the following terms:

Trade-in Credit May Change. I agree that at the time the trade-in vehicle is delivered to the seller, should the value of my trade-in be diminished as a result of physical damage, alteration, or deterioration in mechanical condition other than normal wear and tear, the seller has the right to reappraise the vehicle. As a result of this reappraisal, I understand that the trade-in amount on my vehicle may be reduced.

Trade-in Buyer's Obligations. At the time delivered the trade-in vehicle to the seller, I promise to sign a Bill of Sale and mileage certification statement and provide proof of ownership. I guarantee that I owe no money for the vehicle or for the repairs to the vehicle, that emission control devices have not been altered, and that nothing has been removed, including the seatbelts.

28. In the selection, the word reappraise means:

- a) repay
- b) repair
- c) evaluate
- d) reevaluate
- e) over evaluate

29. The terms of this document according to the National Auto Dealer's Used Car Guide are strictly for _____.

Luis W. Alvarez

In 1939, World War II broke out in Europe. In 1940, Luis Alvarez joined a group of scientists who were designing a way to guide airplanes through fog or darkness.

Alvarez and his group built a radar system called Ground Controlled Approach, or GCA. In this system, a radio signal bounces off a lost plane and back to the sender of the signal. Then a flight controller on the ground can guide the plane safely to the ground.

Later during the war, Alvarez worked in Los Alamos, New Mexico, on a secret project for the government. Nuclear scientists there were searching for a way to make a powerful new weapon, the atom bomb.

It was a tricky job. The radiation given off by the atoms in such a bomb is deadly to living things. Also, an accidental explosion would cause a terrible disaster. The project to build the bomb was a top-secret race, because the first country to build an atom bomb would have the power to win the war.

by Corinn Codye

(Excerpted from Steck-Vaughn Connections: Reading & Literature, page 93)

32. The first thing that was invented was_____.

- a) a group of scientists
- b) a flight controller
- c) the atom bomb
- d) a radar system
- e) nuclear system

33. The last thing the Ground Control device helps to do is_____.

- a) loses a plane
- b) sends nuclear weapon signals
- c) bounces a radio signal to Mexico
- d) lands safely on the war ground
- e) guides the flight controller to landing

34. Details to support that making a bomb was tricky are_____.

- a) there was a race to build two bombs
- b) radiations given off by atoms was deadly
- c) accidental explosions would be a disaster
- d) both options b and c are correct
- e) none of the options are correct

Text 3 (Passage taken from <http://saberingles.com.ar/reading/beatles.html>)

The Beatles

The Beatles were one of the most influential music groups of the rock era, and many consider them the best musical group on Earth. Initially they affected the post-war baby boom generation of Britain and the U.S. during the 1960s, and later the rest of the world. Certainly they were the most successful group, with global sales exceeding 1.1 billion records.

While they were originally famous for light-weight pop music (and the extreme hysterical reaction they received from young women), their later works achieved a combination of popular and critical acclaim perhaps unequaled in the 20th century.

Eventually, they became more than recording artists, branching out into film and — particularly in the case of John

Ejercicios de Simulación Examen de Comunicación en Inglés

Lennon - political activism. They achieved an iconic status beyond mere celebrity, with far reaching effects difficult to exaggerate.

The members of the group were John Lennon, (James) Paul McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr (Richard Starkey), all from Liverpool, Merseyside, England. Original drummer Pete Best was asked to leave the group just before it started recording. Stuart Sutcliffe was with them in Hamburg but also left.

Beatlemania began in the United Kingdom and exploded following the appearance of the Beatles on The Ed Sullivan Show in the United States, on February 9, 1964. The pop-music band became a worldwide phenomenon with worshipful fans, hysterical adulation, and denunciations by culture commentators and others such as Frank Sinatra.

Some of this was confusion over the sources of their music (a similar confusion was evinced in 1956 over Elvis Presley by commentators who were unaware of the tradition of blues, R&B and gospel out of which Presley emerged), and some of it was simply an incredulous reaction to the length of their hair. At any rate, it was regarded by the band members with both awe and resentment.

35. After reading the written passage above, it can be said that The Beatles were_____.

- a) the best selling musical group in history.
- b) an American popular rock group.
- c) a hardly known England rock group.
- d) the best known dancing group of all times.
- e) a gospel music group

36. Beattle _____ was the member which eventually engaged in political activism.

- a) George Harrison
- b) Paul McCartney
- c) John Lennon
- d) Ringo Starr
- e) Frank Sinatra

Text 4 (Passage taken from the novel)

Mutation

by Robin Cook

“But he’s not crying?” questioned Victor. Doubt clouded his euphoria.

The resident lightly slapped the soles of Victor Jr.’s feet, then rubbed his back. Still the infant stayed quiet. “But he’s breathing fine.”

The resident picked up the bulb syringe and tried to suction Victor Jr.’s nose once again. To the doctor’s astonishment, the newborn’s hands came up and yanked the bulb away from the fingers of the resident and dropped it over the side of the infant care unit.

“Well that settles that,” said the resident with a chuckle. “He just doesn’t want to cry.”

37. The turning point of the passage from the novel Mutation is_____.

- a) Victor does not stay for the birth
- b) The infant does not cry at birth
- c) The resident uses the bulb syringe
- d) The doctor dropped the infant
- e) Victor Jr.’s feet and soles

38. From the passage, we can predict that the infant is_____.

- a) healthy
- b) happy
- c) unhappy
- d) not normal
- e) not newborn

Section 3: Indirect Writing

Concepts:

- Incomplete statements
- Spelling and Punctuation
- Logically complete the meaning

In this section, there are exercises to test knowledge of indirect writing. You will be able to improve, revise or edit the text. There are five (5) options to select the correct answer that will add, eliminate, correct, modify, or substitute elements in the text that will make the version more precise, cohesive, unified, and logical.

The exercises provided will give you an opportunity to select the option that best revises or edits a sentence in a text, or paragraph based on knowledge of writing skills.

To evaluate the competence of sentence structure, you will be asked to select the correct option to include a transition word, identify a spelling or a punctuation error. Other exercises ask you to recognize the topic sentence or conclusion, identify the irrelevant sentence, and select the best title for the passage.

In the following practice section, there are examples of skills with a model of the instructions that are included in the test. Some additional skill practice exercises were included for future indirect writing testing versions. These sample exercises have explanations at the end of the reasoning behind the correct options.

Instructions: You will find incomplete statements. Each statement has one (1) blank. Each blank indicates that a word was omitted. After reading carefully, select the option that best logically completes or is the function of the missing word in the statement. There are five options to choose from with letters a, b, c, d, and e after each statement.

Read the passage. Select the BEST option. All sentences are numbered to help you out the exercise.

(1) Last year, my oldest brother got married. (2) His bride was his friend's sister. (3)____, they had a civil marriage in the town hall. (4) A few weeks later, they had a church wedding. (5) The bride wore a beautiful dress and a veil over her head. (6) Here there was a wonderful wedding reception with all kinds of hot and cold food. (7) The groom wore a tuxedo. (8) After the religious ceremony was over, the newlyweds and the guests went to a restaurant near the church. (9) After that, there was music and dancing. (10) I love to dance. (11) Before the reception ended, the bride and groom met and thanked every guest. (12) Finally, after the reception was over, the newlyweds went on a trip to Hawaii for their honeymoon.

Sample exercises:

1. The topic sentence of this selection is:

- a. Last year, my oldest brother got married.
- b. His bride was his friend's sister.
- c. A few weeks later, they had a church wedding.
- d. Here there was a wonderful wedding reception with all kinds of hot and cold food.
- e. The groom wore a tuxedo.

Explanation: In this passage we want to determine the main idea. It is a wedding. Options b, c, d, and e are supporting details for the wedding described in the passage. These sentences give us information in different sentences, but not a complete idea. They are not possible options to start the passage. Option (a) is the only correct option because it contains the topic, which is the wedding, and the controlling idea, my oldest brother got married.

Solution: The correct option is: Last year, my oldest brother got married

Correct option: (a)

2. In the selection, which is the best word to add to the beginning of sentence (3)?

- a. Then,
- b. After,
- c. First,
- d. Finally,
- e. Second,

Explanation: In sentence three (3) we need a signal word. Option a, b and e are not possible because these signal words are for a series of events that are not mentioned yet. Option (d) is not a possibility because it is not a final event. The best answer is letter (c) because it is a signal word that indicates a starting event in the sentence.

Solution: The correct option is: First,

First, they had a civil marriage in the town hall.

Correct option: (c)

In exercises 39 through 50 read the selections and select the best answers. The texts are numbered for you.

(1) The most terrifying day of my life started when my daughter had a terrible accident with hot cooking oil two years ago. (2) I had gone to school to register for classes. (3) By the time I got home I was very hungry and tired. (4) I started preparing French fries, and just when the oil had gotten hot, my daughter came to ask me for water. (5) As I turned to give her the water, I bumped the handle of the pan, and the hot oil went all over her legs. (6) To make matters worse, though, an administrator at the hospital refused to believe that it was an accident. (7) I still remember her screaming from the pain. (8) I looked at her legs, and the skin looked like hot melted wax. (9) In shock, I rushed her to the hospital.

(10) At the hospital, a doctor treated her burns, while I walked back and forth in the waiting room, crying and praying. (11) This made me even more upset.

(12) My daughter and I did not get home until the next day. (13) Although I was finally able to go home with my daughter, the scars on her legs will always remind me of that terrifying day.
